

REMARKS

Some minor amendments have been made to the existing claims in the application, and new claims 18-54 have been added to further define preferred aspects of Applicant's invention. Support for the subject matter of these new claims can be found in the Specification as follows:

Claims 18-28 find support in the original claims, but are directed specifically to SEQ ID NO. 1, SEQ ID NO. 2 or the insert in plasmid DSM 12425.

Claims 29-32 and 43-46 directed to the host cell being a bacterial host cell, especially E. coli, are supported at, for example, page 12, the 4th paragraph.

Claims 33-36 and 47-50 directed to the host cell being a fungal host cell are supported, for example, at page 12, the 4th paragraph.

Claims 37-42 and 51-54 directed to the plant and plant cell being of particular selected plants are supported, for example, by page 12, the 3rd paragraph through page 13, the 1st paragraph and page 18, the 2nd paragraph.

It is submitted, therefore, that all the claims are appropriately supported by the Specification and addition of the new claims does not attempt to enter new matter.

It is noted with appreciation that the claims have been indicated as being free of the prior art. The only remaining issue is the rejection under claims 1-5, 10-14 and 17 of 35 U.S.C. § 112, 1st paragraph. But the Examiner notes that this rejection can be overcome by submission of an appropriate Affidavit or Declaration regarding the Budapest Treaty Deposit. In response thereto, enclosed is an appropriate Budapest Treaty Deposit Declaration from the Applicant with respect to the deposit designated DSM 12425. It is believed that this submission overcomes the rejection under 35 § U.S.C. 112. Reconsideration and withdrawal of the rejection are, therefore, requested.

It is believed that this application is now in condition for allowance, and early action to that effect is respectfully requested.

Should there be any outstanding matters that need to be resolved in the present application, the Examiner is respectfully requested to contact Leonard R. Svensson Reg. No.
